SECRET GARDENS

Apart from its huge parks like the famous Villa Borghese, Villa Doria Pamphili or Villa Ada, wonderful places that you should visit, of course, Rome hides some paradisiac secret gardens.
Here are 7 mini-eden, you can enjoy all the year round, without being surrounded by a horde of tourists!

-Anne-Sophie.

1. ROSETO COMUNALE

It's one of the most romantic ones and definitely the most perfumed: 1 100 types of roses, and you get the most spectacular views over the Palatine hill and Circus Maximus.

Via di Valle Murcia, 6, 00153 Roma
Mon - Sun 08h30 - 19h30

2. TERME DI DIOCLEZIANO

A secret spot, better than Termini, to wait for your train: cross the piazza and enter the beautiful garden of the museum Terme di Diocleziano. Magnificent views.

Viale Enrico de Nicola, 79, 00185 Roma
Tue - Sun: 09h30 - 19h. Mon: Closed.

3. ORTO BOTANICO

Never crowded, it's the most beautiful garden in the centre of Rome, with its amazing palm trees, bamboo forest, japanese garden and lovely views.

Palazzo corsini, Largo Cristina di Svezia, 24, 00165 Roma
Mon - Sat: 09 - 18h30. Sun: Closed.

4. PALATINE

Only a few find the way to San Sebastiano al Palatino: a Tuscan landscape that offers an absolutely breathtaking view over the Colosseo.

Via della Salara Vecchia, 5/6
Mon-Sun 08h30-19h (March - Sep)/ Mon-Sun 08h30-17h-ish (during the rest of the year)

5. IL GIARDINO DI PALAZZO BARBERINI

Behind the Palazzo, and their wonderful masterpieces of Raphael & Caravage the stairs drive to a beautiful Italian garden with lemon trees called "Giardino segreto"!

Via delle Quattro Fontane, 13, 00184 Roma

6. VILLA ALDOBRANDINI

Incredible suspended garden with all the Roman essentials: palm trees, statues, orange & lemon trees, and breathtaking view over Rome.

Via Mazzarino, 11, 00184 Roma

7. CASA DELLA LETTERATURA

Hidden and mini. After crossing the library, you'll get to a patio with orange trees...Take a book and sit at the foot of the magnificent Borromini's Torre dell'orologio, right in the center of Rome... but without tourists!

Piazza dell'Orologio, 3, 00186 Roma
Mon - Fri 09h30 - 18h30
