

THE URBAN HIKE

This is a quick guide for when you have a quick break on a city, where it is a one-day scale between destinations or a visit you can squeeze in between business meetings. Short & sweet but exhastive. Enjoy!

I heard someone saying that Zurich is the centre of fresh air. It's no coincidence that this map will take you from the highest points in Zurich, guide you alongside beautiful nature and bring you down to the refreshing lakeside always offering you the best city air available I call it the urban hike and I believe even Heidi & Peter would enjoy a day trip like that in Zurich...

-Caroline.
