

TRAVELING AROUND

The Dalmatia coast around Dubrovnik is an epic paradise surrounded by crystal clear water and wild vegetation. Many little towns are located along the coast, all great for daytrips during your summer vacation. The main attraction in this area are the beautiful beaches, but Dalmatia is also famous for its valuable historic heritage and for being one of the main locations for Game of Throne's King's Landing.

1. CAVTAT

Beautiful town with many amazing spots to sunbathe on a rock and take a dip in crystal clear waters. Many serious private luxury ships and yachts can be seen along the strand. Make sure to have a pizza in Kabalero, swim in Kamen Mali & enjoy the sunset view at the Seaside Promenade.

Pizzeria Kabalero
Put Tiha 8, 20210, Cavtat.

3. LOKRUM

Small island in front of Dubrovnik Old Town, great for a day trip. Bring food. It has a monastery with some of Game of Throne's props. The island is inhabited by friendly wild rabbits and peacocks. There's a nudist beach too, Latte.

Benedictine Monastery of St. Mary

4. CAFE BUZA

Amazing and perfect to escape the crowd. This bar is literally a hole in the city wall and hangs on a cliff right above the sea. Bring a bathing suit.

Crijevićeva ul. 9, 20000, Dubrovnik.

5. SULIC BEACH

Outside of the city walls in a beautiful bay, just below the tall fort of Lovrijenac. Relax, jump off the cliffs into the sea. Great spot for kids.

Ul. od Tabakarije 29, 20000, Dubrovnik.

6. BARBA

Tired of mediterranean food? Have a quick bite at Barba, cool budget place run by its owner. Fried seafood and delicious octopus, sardine and prawns burgers. They also brew their own Barba beer.

Boškovićeve ul. 5, 20000, Dubrovnik.
Tlf: +385 91 205 3488
Open everyday: 10 - 02hrs

7. KUPARI BEACH

This place used to be a fancy modern resort built for the elite of the Yugoslavian army. Nowadays there's a nice sandy beach next to the ruins of this colossal abandoned place.
