ART NOUVEAU

Vienna is well-known for its imperial history and famous composers. But among the celebrities that forged its past, two particularly stand out when it comes to Jugendstil, the German name of the artistic courant known as art nouveau.

Vienna is full of beautiful buildings, from churches to subway stations, from cafés to apartments, where the splendor of art nouveau flourishes. Let's talk a walk to discover the most famous among them!

-Marie.

1. MAJOLICA HOUSE AND MEDALLION HOUSE

The masterpieces of architect Otto Wagner, two wonderful buildings with features of a rare beauty. Indubitably the place to begin any art nouveau journey in Vienna!

4. Linke Wienzeile 38-40

2. WAGNER PAVILIONS KARLSPLATZ

Once upon a time there were two Stadtbahn stations (underground), now one of them hosts an exhibition about Otto Wagner and its work and the other one is a café.

4 Karlsplatz. Opens March/April-October, Tue-Sun, 10-18h

3. HOFPAVILLON HIETZING

Built as an imperial Stadtbahn station, for the emperor Franz-Joseph. Now you can still admire the beautiful art nouveau interior & learn about the construction of the metropolitan around 1900.

13. Schönbrunner Schloßstraße
Open March/April-October, Tue-Sun, 10-13 / 14-18h.

4. KIRCHE AM STEINHOF

The most beautiful Jugendstil church in Vienna. The grounds are worth the visit too, surrounded by the Viennese Woods and Vienna at their feet.

14. Baumgartner Höhe 1
Opens Sat 16-17h / Sun 12-16h

5. ST. CHARLES BORROMEO CEMETERY CHURCH

Another beautiful art nouveau church in a completely different style. Don't miss a stroll in the cemetery alleys, you will encounter a few very elegant art nouveau tombs.

11 Simmeringer Hauptstrasse 234. Daily 9-16h

6. MAK

The museum of applied arts owns one of the most extensive collection of art nouveau furniture and objects, where the art nouveau style expresses itself at its best!

1 Stubenring 5. Tue-Sun 10-18h. Tuesdays until 22h

7. CAFÉ RUDIGERHOF

One of the few, if not the only, art nouveau café in Vienna. Its sober features are best admired from the terrace outside, if the weather allows it, as you can still smoke inside.

5 Hamburgerstraße 20. Open daily 9 - 02 hrs
