

EAT, DRINK, REPEAT

Eating, drinking and walking a lot. That is what good traveling is about, right? For some is the only reason for traveling. Living a different life enjoying a city as a local, but without rush or obligations, only enjoying the best of what the city have to offer. Eating, drinking and then starting all over!

"Saint-Géry and Sainte-Catherine are the neighborhoods I know best in Brussels. Walkable and filled with endless and delicious options and surprises. Like those tricky Belgian beers, be careful with those!" -Ana.

1. LES FILLES ✓

Unconventional fixed-priced/self-service brunch made with love by a nice group of girls to be enjoyed in shared wooden tables in a beautiful old house.
www.lesfilles.be
 Rue du Vieux Marché aux Grains 46
 M-S 12h - 14h & 18h - 21h

2. NOORDZEE / LA MER DU NORD ✓

The freshest fish you can eat. Great cocquilles Saint-Jacques and my favourite the fish soup! Everything enjoying a good white wine on shared tables placed on the square.

 Rue Sainte-Catherine 45
 Fishbar Tue-Sat 11h - 18h, Sun 11h - 20h
 Oysters & Omarrébrod Tue-Sat 11h - 18h, Sun-Mon closed

3. FIN DE SIÈCLE ✓

Art-déco and massive Belgium dishes. Queue is worth it. Jambonneau recommended!
 Rue des Chartreux 9
 Mon-Sun : Matin, Midi et Soir

4. CHEZ CLAUDE

Atypical bistro perfect for when you really really fancy a hamburger and some rock 'n roll.
www.chezclaudes.eu
 Rue de Flandre 36
 Mon, Wed, Thu, Fri 17h30 - 22h30 Sat-Sun 16h-22h30
 Tuesdays Closed

5. ZEBRA

Cool place and lovely people. Good beers selection. Live music and last Sunday of the month: Jam et Jambon!
