-SEVILLA-

A WEEKEND POR SEVILLANAS

If you don't know the south of Spain, you definitely must plan a trip there really soon (I recommend every month of the year except July and August, too hot) and enjoy Spain at its best: history in every corner, great food and drinks and loads of flamenco and very friendly people, that's Sevilla for you!

-Ana.

1. PABELLÓN DEL FUTURO

Remember the World Expo Sevilla 92? Well, around that area is where it all took place. It's a bit of a ghost town now, but even that have a charm and the local government is trying to keep the place alive, so go ahead and have a look at the old repurposed pavilions!

Calle 8, Camino de los descubrimientos. 41092 Sevilla.
Fri, Sat, Sun 11-00h

2. SANTA CRUZ & SETAS DE SEVILLA

Ideal for a short-stay if you don't want to miss a thing but still want to get lost in the little allies and discover lovely places. Don't miss the Setas de Sevilla, a sculptural wooden structure, museum, rooftop walkway & viewpoint.

3. CASA BAR RUPERTO

This is a very simple but delicious place. Their signature dish is quail but you can also enjoy other local stuff. No chairs just tables to stand around to surrounded by locals. Perfect for a quick bite with a 'caña' to start your night.

Av. Santa Cecilia, 2 / Everyday: 12-16h / 20-00h

4. TRIANA

This neighborhood is where flamenco was born and where you can enjoy it whether in small tablaos or big shows. Also, all along Calle Betis you have all sort of bars for every possible taste for a cocktail overlooking the Guadalquivir.

Calle Betis. 41010 Sevilla.

5. REAL ALCÁZAR DE SEVILLA

This palace originally developed by Moorish Muslim kings is an architectural and cultural wonder, opulent & beautiful. It's a World Heritage Site & it's Dorne, the place where the Martells (used to) live in Game of Thrones.

Patio de Banderas, s/n. 41004 Sevilla
Oct-Mar Everyday 9h30-17h Apr-Sep 9h30-19h

6. CARLOS BAENA

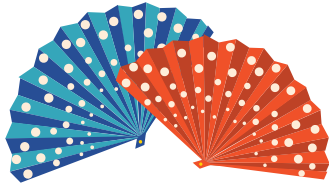

One word: great. Not a tourist trap, actually very few tourist can be seen here. Traditional and yet innovative dishes to be enjoyed at a great price.

Calle Rastro, 28. 41004 Sevilla
Tue-Sat 12-17h | 21-00h Sun 12-17h Mon Closed

7. PARQUE MARÍA LUISA

The amazing Plaza España, the little cars with horses, the statues, the fountains and yet another GoT location. What's not to like of this green and refreshing side of the city?

Paseo de las Delicias, s/n. 41013 Sevilla
Mon-Sun: 08-00h
