

PARMA FOR KIDS

Parma is a small city in Emilia-Romagna, Italy, easily explored by foot. It is an excellent destination for its numerous musical events, masterpieces of art and gastronomic specialities. Even children can find some places to enjoy their time, playing and discovering new things.

1. LAGHETTO DEL PARCO DUCALE

In addition to wonderful trees, the Garden Palace, statues and a small temple, in the park there is a small lake in the center of which there is an islet with the monumental Trianon Fountain. Kids love to watch the ducks here.

Largo Luca Ganzi, 3, 43126 Parma PR

2. SALE MUSEALI DELL'ANTICO EGITTO (PILOTTA)

In the National Archaeological Museum, children will definitely take you to the Ancient Egypt collection!

Open: Tue-Sun 10h30-19h · Tickets: 12€ · Under 18: Free
Piazza della Pilotta, 3, 43121

3. IL CASTELLO DEI BURATTINI

In the "Castle of Puppets" there are puppets, marionettes, heads, stage props, photographs and posters. A rich collection that bears witness to the importance of this form of theater in Italy.

Open: Mon & Wed-Fri 10-17h30 · Sat-Sun 10h30-18h30
Strada Macedonio Melloni, 3/A, 43121

4. AREA GIOCHI VERDIANA

Honoring Giuseppe Verdi, born near Busseto, there is a small children's playground featuring a giant violin and a small theatre!

Piazzale Salvo D'Acquisto, 43121

5. LIBRERIA "LIBRI E FORMICHE"

Independent bookstores are always magic places to preserve. This one is a very nice bookshop for kids and teens filled with amazing books & toys, selected with love.

Mon-Sat 9-13h 15h30-19h30 · Thu only morning
Via Vincenzo Mistrali, 2/B, 43121

6. MERIDIANE DEL PALAZZO DEL GOVERNATORE

Do you know how to read a sundial? In Parma there is one of these ancient clocks in the tower of the Governor's Palace.

Piazza Giuseppe Garibaldi, 19, 43100

7. NEGOZIO "CASA DEL BISCOTTO"

After walking, why not close this tour with chocolates or colorful candies? This is a historic shop that since 1958 it has sweetened citizens' holidays.
